Deckstone Porcelain Panel

With its hard wearing, anti-slip body Deckstone Porcelain Panels provide a strong resistance to the elements and mechanical action to give you the same luxurious feel for years and years to come.

Our tiles have a Class A fire rating and are made with sustainable material making it a green product. The tiles are also much lighter than your typical stone or concrete paver but heavy enough to sustain high winds and have a 50-year life. With the same beauty and elegance as stone Deckstone Porcelain Panels are a great option to maintain the feel of stone at an affordable price.
